

1889. The Handstamp Surcharges1 Sic surcharged Att.Type - Sheet.

The four types are principally distinguished by the size of the second character.

Type 1.

This is the common type; all the others are of excessive rarity.

The only copy known.Type 2.

Characterised by the large size of the characters.

Type 3.

This type is only known in conjunction with rare errors, and is therefore believed by most authorities to be a forgery.

Examples are shown on a later page.

Type 4.

Characterised by the small size of the lower part of the second character.